Come and meet new friends. Monthly meeting place where FRIENDS OF SRI LANKA come together

Mr Kumar Athulathmudali, Former SLANSW President and a very active member and supporter of our efforts will be the invited guest at May OPEN DAY.

Mr. Athulathmudali was attached to Qantas Airways as a Senior Manager and was in Australia for 24 years. In 2016, He decided to migrate back to Sri Lanka.

Last May 2016 Sri Lankan government appointed Mr. Athulathmudali as the Advisor to the Minister of Disaster Management.

As you know currently disasters are very frequent in all over the world including in Sri Lanka. Sri Lankan government through the Ministry of Disaster Management is doing a massive amount of work to identify risk, mitigate risk, and post disaster relief work etc in order to protect life of the community, property and the environment.

If anyone is thinking to migrate back to Sri Lanka in the near future you may find useful to talk to Kumar. He is happy to share his experience in living in Sri Lanka after spending many years in Australia.
